

WEDDING BELLS.

FURNELL—OSBORNE

The wedding of Miss Eva Elizabeth Osborne, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Osborne, of York Street, Fairfield, to Mr. Howard Furnell, elder son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Furnell, of Artarmon, was solemnised at St. John's Church of England, Parramatta, on May 22. Bishop Hinwood officiated.

The bride, who was given away by her father, wore an exquisite gown of figured satin with lustre effect, and short train, and added a trained veil with a topknot of camellias. She carried a bouquet of white camellias and tuberoses.

Mr. George Burcher was best man and Mr. Ian Furnell groomsmen.

During the singing of the register "Wherever You Walk" was delightfully rendered by Miss M. Boxall.

The reception was held at "Westella," Auburn, where the guests were received by the bride's mother, who chose a powder blue frock with black accessories. She was assisted by the bridegroom's mother, wearing turquoise blue with brown accessories. Mr. G. Stone presided at the "breakfast."

Afterwards, the newly-weds left by air for Tasmania, where the honeymoon was spent. The bride being an attractive figure in a smart tailored black suit with gold embroidery. Their future address will be at Fairfield.
